

"A BROADER VIEW: EXPLORING THE AFRICAN PRESENCE IN EARLY NEW YORK" WALKING TOUR

■ The African Burial Ground National Monument invites the public to learn about the African presence in Early New York. "A Broader View: Exploring the African Presence in Early New York" walking tours will highlight how free and enslaved Africans played an important role in the development of New York City. Social, political, cultural, and economic aspects of African and African American life will be discussed at Lower Manhattan sites.

Sites and events that may be covered include Fort Amsterdam; the Slave Market on Wall Street; slave revolts; the Underground Railroad movement; the African Free Schools; City Hall Park and more.

Come and join us on our free ranger guided walking tours and discover

"A BROADER VIEW: EXPLORING THE AFRICAN PRESENCE IN EARLY NEW YORK"

When: Walking tours are given Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Reservations are required!

Where: Ranger guided walking tours begin on the steps of Federal Hall National Memorial located at 26 Wall Street and end at the African Burial Ground National Monument.

Time: Walking tours start at 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

Length of Tour: Walking tours are 90 minutes

Cost: Tours are FREE and open to the public

Attire for tour: Wear comfortable shoes and bring plenty of water.

■ Tours are limited to 15 people. Make reservations by dialing 212-637-2019. Tickets are available on a first come, first serve basis.

■ For more information about the walking tour, "A Broader View: Exploring the African Presence in Early New York," please visit www.nps.gov/afbg or call 212.637.2019

Tours may be cancelled due to inclement weather.